

NEW YORK POST

April 10, 2014

NYP Real Estate Guide Home

By JENNIFER
GOULD KEIL

Heard any great gossip? E-mail: jkeil@nypost.com
Follow me on Twitter @JenGouldKeil

Vroom for rent

Do fancy fast cars catch your fancy? If so, check out this $15,000 a month rental at 554 Broome St., which was once owned by Marco Mattiacci, the US president of Ferrari. Currently occupied, the two-bedroom, two-bathroom duplex loft will be available for rent starting April 26.

The loft boasts 16-foot ceilings, a “Ferrari red”

kitchen, woodburning fireplace and a 15-foot-long oak dining-room table.

There’s also a century-old olive press, which was designed by Arturo Di Modica, known for his Wall Street bull sculpture. The listing broker is Douglas Elliman’s Frances Katzen.