

NEW YORK POST

March 7, 2013

NYP Real Estate Guide Home

Just passing Theroux

This week, as rumors swirl about Jennifer Aniston's upcoming nuptials, her fiancé, Justin Theroux (below), snuck away from his beloved to check out a potential home.

The couple are reportedly thinking about getting married in Hawaii — which Theroux loves — to avoid the media spotlight of an LA wedding. In the meantime, on Monday, Theroux popped out of a Lincoln Town Car to scope out a two-bedroom duplex co-op in the Police Building at 240 Centre St. Theroux and his younger brother, Sebastian, both wearing tight black motorcycle jackets and jeans, toured a 1,700-square-foot, $2.295 million duplex with 18-foot ceilings on the main floor.

The two-bedroom, 2½-bathroom residence includes 12-foot arched windows and an open chef's kitchen. Spies say Theroux liked the white-glove landmark building, but he didn't stay long in the street-level unit and might want something higher up and more grand.

Listing broker Frances Katzen of Douglas Elliman declined to comment, but we hear that congratulations are in order to her and husband Robert Fahrbach on the recent birth of their daughter, Freya Grace Fahrbach.

Jon Kopaloff/FilmMagic