

December 18, 2011

On Last Weekend's Open House

By Linda Vongkhamchanh

34 Greene Street
New York, NY

$13,750,000
4 Beds/5 Baths
4,998 Square Feet

Prudential Douglas Elliman
Frances Katzen
212.350.8587
Melanie Lazenby
212.727.6131

On this episode, we go on the set of Showtime's "Californication," tour the famous Winchester Mystery House, and more. Tune in!

Get this Look: On the Set of Californication

Production designer Doug Meerdink takes us behind the scenes of the latest set creation on Showtime's hit drama Californication, starring David Duchovny.

Square Feet: Understated Elegance at 690 Ridge Road

The floor plan unfolds beautifully with dramatic and spacious rooms that are accented by warm and intimate spaces. The home exudes understated elegance throughout. The integration of quality and attention to detail throughout combine to form an unparalleled residence.

Tips of the Trade: College Town Real Estate Trends

Our friends at Coldwell Banker are giving us the inside info on college town real estate trends.

Square Feet: Tour the Winchester Mystery House

We visit the famous Winchester Mystery House, a national and historical landmark in San Jose, CA where we'll see the beautiful Victorian style architecture of this unique but bizarre estate and also get a peek at a few spaces not usually seen by the general public.

The Rescue: Laura's New Sunroom

George the Rescue crew head to the home of Laura Balun to give this inspiring woman a home rescue to make her life easier and surprise her with the sunroom of her dreams.

This episode of Open House was hosted from 34 Greene St., New York, NY. For more information on this property, please contact Frances Katzen or Melanie Lazenby of Prudential Douglas Elliman at 212-350-8587 or 212-727-6131.