Giant Steps: Talk-Show Host and Former New York Defensive End Michael Strahan Relists Manhattan Condo For $2.25 Million

Retired New York Giants defensive end Michael Strahan has relisted his Manhattan condo for $2.25 million.

Located in TriBeCa, the 1,911-square-foot loft has two bedrooms and two bathrooms. There are 18-foot-tall ceilings, sandblasted brick walls, oak floors and stainless-steel appliances. The building has a doorman, a gym and a playroom for children.

Mr. Strahan, 41, who currently co-hosts "Live! With Kelly and Michael" and appears on "Fox NFL Sunday," played for the Giants for 15 years. He bought the property in August 2008 for $1.66 million, according to public records. He liked the loft's dramatic gallery entrance and ceiling heights, says listing agent Frances Katzen of Douglas Elliman in New York. He used the property as a pied-à-terre and was planning to renovate but never did, Ms. Katzen says, adding that he is selling the unit because he no longer needs it.

Mr. Strahan originally listed the property in November 2009 for $1.875 million, according to Ms. Katzen. She says he took it off the market in February 2010 and rented it out. Mr. Strahan declined to comment.
